

I really enjoy my satellite radio in my new car. The fact that I have so many options available as to what I choose to listen. The fact that I can also tune to instant traffic & weather is a great advantage. As well I feel it helps to spur competition among radio programing that is available for me to choose from. When it comes to the NAB lobbying to reduce this type of programing I clearly and loudly vote NO!